Visio Divina Evening – April 14

Join us on Tuesday, April 14 from 6:30-8:00 p.m. at St. Columban Parish for a Visio Divina Evening led by Fr. Jonathan Blake. Visio Divina ("Divine Seeing") is a form of prayer that invites us to encounter God through beauty using art and images of creation rather than words. In a busy and noisy world, this gentle practice offers a peaceful way to listen to God with our eyes and hearts. The evening will include guided reflection, sharing, and refreshments. All are welcome!

No life can survive without water. After mass we will have an outdoor ceremony (smudge, procession and prayer) featuring water from around the world blessed by Pope Leo XIV, to remind us of our role to protect water and use it wisely. This will be followed by a reception in the parish hall.

All are welcome to come and celebrate the Hour of Divine Mercy

Sunday, April 12th from 3 to 4 P.M. at St. Peter Parish.

Plenary Indulgence for Divine Mercy Sunday

To ensure that the faithful observe this day with intense devotion, St. Pope John Paul II established a Plenary Indulgence to receive complete forgiveness and punishment, (as Jesus said), so that they might, in turn, show pardon to their brothers and sisters. Conditions to obtain the Plenary Indulgence are Reconciliation, Communion and Prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father and take part in prayers and devotions in honour of Divine Mercy in any Church or Chapel.
